Community Overview and History

Clyde, Texas, located on Interstate 20 just fifteen miles east of Abilene, traces its roots to the expansion of the Texas & Pacific Railway, in 1880, through the Callahan Divide- between the Brazos and Colorado Rivers. Legend has it that the railroad construction crew, which numbered 5,000, gathered regularly at Robert Clyde's construction camp and supply tent, just south of the tracks, hence the area began to be commonly referred to as "Clyde's". Settlers moved into the area, and a post office for the new community was commissioned in June 1881. The town was formally chartered on July 9, 1907. Situated above an aquifer, Clyde earned the nickname "Little California" for its bountiful fruit and vegetable crops, which were shipped across Texas by rail. Cattle and horses were raised on the area's abundant grasses. Oil production started around 1924 and through the 1980s diversified and stabilized the local economy.

Today Clyde Post Office now serves more than 4000 families, from every corner of the globe. Young families, professionals, members of the US military, retirees, artists, musicians, students, entrepreneurs, ranchers and cowboys - all call Clyde home. They come together as neighbors; they meet at church, the grocery store, the park, and can be heard cheering one another on at sporting events.

Clyde CISD is a TEA "Recognized" district with new schools, a new performing arts center and a new football stadium. Clyde is a city that is both proud of its history and purposefully forging ahead. Under progressive leadership, Clyde is welcoming new businesses, restoring its downtown area, and expanding its borders. Festivals, parades, art galleries, fine dining, events at the Public Library and a new City Park all add to the quality of life for Clyde residents.

In June of 2022, the community broke ground on the Hanner Sports Complex. The facility is expected cost around $15 Million dollars and will provide baseball, softball, tennis, soccer and pickleball facilities. Additionally, the synthetic fields will reduce playing temperatures by 30 degrees.

Based on the information provided to Core Distinction Group at the time of researching the subject community, the following recommendations are made:

Property segment recommended for the potential development of a hotel is an Upper Midscale hotel. This type of hotel would allow the property to be positioned properly at the subject site. It is anticipated that a new hotel would capture displaced Lodging Demand currently staying in markets surrounding Clyde, TX. Additionally, the newness of the hotel should be well received in the marketplace. It's location will be ideal to serve Clyde and regional markets. This type of hotel would also be capable of adjusting rates to best fit the demand in the market and the seasonality of the area.

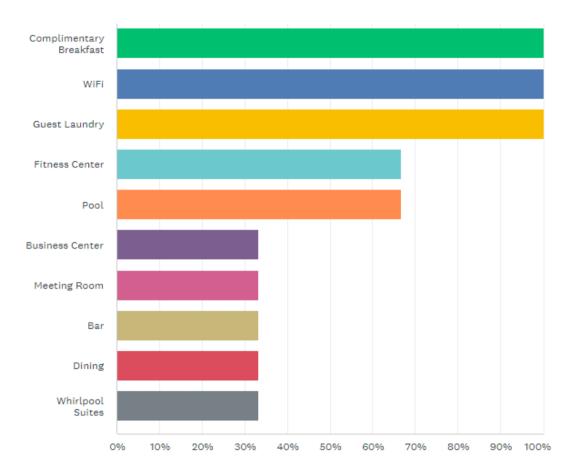

Property size recommendation of a newly developed hotel was researched to be between 80-100 guestrooms in this report. This would position it to be similar in size to the average room size of 72-86 noted by the competitive set surveyed. The size would assist the property in achieving the Occupancy projections listed in this report. It is not advisable to over-build in this market at this time. Expansion of the hotel in future years could be considered as the market's Lodging Demand grows. Adjusting the room count will modify Performance.

The recommended Sleeping Room Configuration should be compatible with the overall Market Segmentation of the area. The property should offer a selection of guestrooms with single occupancy king bedded rooms at 30%, double occupancy double queen bedded guestrooms at 60%, with a 10% option for extended stay long term lodging options or suites due to the mix of business indicators.

Economic Impact Potential: There are multiple economic impacts of building and developing a new hotel in a community. Some direct impact drivers include projected hotel revenue including all room revenues, meeting room revenue, as well as vending/bar revenue. On average, this size property will create 15-25 full time jobs. Part-time employment varies by hotel need and hiring practices. Additional economic development will include taxes, which include all sales taxes collected on hotel revenue, as well as all payroll related taxes collected from full-time hotel employees and temporary construction workers. Local governments will also collect new property taxes from the operation of the hotel. Indirect impact includes all jobs and income generated by businesses that supply goods and services to the hotel. A few examples of businesses that will indirectly benefit from the development of a hotel include suppliers of room related goods (housekeeping supplies, room amenities, etc.), telecommunication vendors (internet, cable, etc.), utility companies, food and beverage suppliers, and other hotel related vendors.

Executive Summary

Property features, amenities, and services of the hotel should satisfy the market it is attempting to attract. Standard features and amenities required for a proposed hotel in this market should include:

Central Texas Area is among the largest U.S. hotel submarkets, and contains around 23,000 rooms spread across some 420 properties. That adds up to about a third of the Texas West market's hotel inventory. Central Texas Area is characterized by very small hotels, with an average property size of 55 rooms. That's even lower than the 67-room-per-building market average, and both are well below the national norm of about 90 rooms per building.

The submarket's inventory skews towards cost-efficient lodging: Over half of the rooms here are Economy or Midscale. The broader Texas West market likewise has a high proportion of Economy and Midscale rooms relative to the typical U.S. hotel market.

COVID-19 severely impacted the entire U.S. hospitality sector, the Central Texas Area hotel submarket included. At the low point, occupancies collapsed to a monthly rate of 26.0% in April of 2020. But with the worst of the pandemic now in the rearview mirror, conditions are improving. Room demand was up 8.0% in September when compared to the same month the prior year, and occupancies are well off their lows.

Twelve-month RevPAR was recently climbing at en exceptionally strong rate: As of September, twelvemonth average RevPAR in the Central Texas Area hotel submarket was up 24.0%, in line with the similarly impressive market-wide average.

There are 410 rooms underway in the Central Texas Area submarket, representing a 1.8% expansion of the existing inventory. This new supply follows a handful of recent openings: In the past three years, 7 projects containing around 340 rooms came on line. That development was somewhat offset by a number of demolitions, which took around 88 rooms off the market over the same timeframe.

The submarket recorded 9 hotel trades closed over the past year, well above the number of deals that typically close in a given year.

Conclusion

For the purposes of this Comprehensive Hotel Market Feasibility Study, Core Distinction Group LLC offers an overview and overall description of the conclusion and recommendations found through its research and analysis. This section will contain:

Conclusion and Recommendations

Property segment recommended for the potential development of a hotel is an Upper Midscale hotel. This type of hotel would allow the property to be positioned properly at the subject site. It is anticipated that a new hotel would capture displaced Lodging Demand currently staying in markets surrounding Clyde, TX. Additionally, the newness of the hotel should be well received in the marketplace. It's location will be ideal to serve Clyde and regional markets. This type of hotel would also be capable of adjusting rates to best fit the demand in the market and the seasonality of the area.

Property size recommendation of a newly developed hotel was researched to be between 80-100 guestrooms in this report. This would position it to be similar in size to the average room size of 72-86 noted by the competitive set surveyed. The size would assist the property in achieving the Occupancy projections listed in this report. It is not advisable to over-build in this market at this time. Expansion of the hotel in future years could be considered as the market's Lodging Demand grows. Adjusting the room count will modify Performance.

The recommended Sleeping Room Configuration should be compatible with the overall Market Segmentation of the area. The property should offer a selection of guestrooms with single occupancy king bedded rooms at 30%, double occupancy double queen bedded guestrooms at 60%, with a 10% option for extended stay long term lodging options or suites due to the mix of business indicators.

Economic Impact Potential: There are multiple economic impacts of building and developing a new hotel in a community. Some direct impact drivers include projected hotel revenue including all room revenues, meeting room revenue, as well as vending/bar revenue. On average, this size property will create 15-25 full time jobs. Part-time employment varies by hotel need and hiring practices. Additional economic development will include taxes, which include all sales taxes collected on hotel revenue, as well as all payroll related taxes collected from full-time hotel employees and temporary construction workers. Local governments will also collect new property taxes from the operation of the hotel. Indirect impact includes all jobs and income generated by businesses that supply goods and services to the hotel. A few examples of businesses that will indirectly benefit from the development of a hotel include suppliers of room related goods (housekeeping supplies, room amenities, etc.), telecommunication vendors (internet, cable, etc.), utility companies, food and beverage suppliers, and other hotel related vendors.

Understanding Terms

For the purposes of this Comprehensive Hotel Market Feasibility Study, Core Distinction Group, LLC has taken the time to offer detailed definitions of words and terms highlighted throughout this report. This section contains the information to help readers navigate industry terms.

Understanding Terms:

Below you will find definitions of industry terms used throughout this report to help the reader gain an understanding of certain phrases and indicators:

Average Daily Rate (ADR)

A measure of the average rate paid for rooms sold, calculated by dividing room revenue by rooms sold. ADR = Room Revenue / Rooms Sold

Chain Scale

Chain Scale segments are grouped primarily according to actual average room rates. An independent hotel, regardless of average room rate, is included as a separate Chain Scale category. The Chain Scale segments are: Luxury, Upper Upscale, Upscale, Upscale, Upper Midscale, Midscale, Economy and Independent.

Competitive Set (Comp Set)

A peer group of hotels that competes for business and is selected to benchmark the subject property's performance.

Date-To-Date Comparison

Comparison of daily performance by actual calendar date (1st of January this year vs. 1st of January last year).

Day-To-Day Comparison

Comparison of daily performance by day of week (Monday this year vs. Monday last year).

Demand

The number of rooms sold in a specified time period (excludes complimentary rooms).

Group Rooms

Typically defined as 10 or more rooms per night sold, pursuant to a signed agreement. Refer to Data Reporting Guidelines for more specific application.

Index

Measures a hotel's performance relative to an aggregated grouping of hotels (i.e., competitive set, market or submarket). We utilize indexes to measure performance in three key areas: Occupancy, ADR and RevPAR. An index of 100 means a hotel is capturing a fair share compared to the aggregated group of hotels. An index greater than 100 represents more than a fair share of the aggregated group's performance. Conversely, an index below 100 reflects less than a fair share of the aggregated group's performance.

Occupancy (OCC)

Percentage of available rooms sold during a specified time period. Occupancy is calculated by dividing the number of rooms sold by rooms available. Occupancy = Rooms Sold / Rooms Available

Revenue Per Available Room (RevPAR)

Total room revenue divided by the total number of available rooms. Room Revenue/Rooms Available = RevPAR

Total Revenue

Revenue from all hotel operations - including rooms, Food and Beverage, other revenue departments (i.e., spa, golf, parking) and miscellaneous revenue (i.e., rentals, leases, resort fees and cancellation fees).

DATA COMPILATION

This phase of the process involves compiling all the data gathered during our visit to gain the overall picture of what is needed for the community. This phase is conducted in the two weeks following our community visit

DATA RECEIVING & REPORTING

Once all the demand generator information is gathered. Core Distinction Group begins pulling industry data for target market as well better understanding of the local and regional opportunity areas.

COST GATHERING

This involves all things cost. Core Distinction Group gathers actual cost for the development, construction, financing, taxes, and all other ongoing costs associated with the specific project.

PROJECT PRO FORMA

Immediately following Development and Operational Cost Gathering, Core Distinction Group will construct a project, brand, market, and scale specific Pro Forma that is bank, investor, brand and developer friendly.

DRAFT COMPLETION/SUBMITTAL

After Core Distinction has conducted all previous phases, we complete a draft of the study and financial pro forma and submit it for review by the contracted entity. Changes to the study may be made at this point but are limited to spelling and grammar updates.

FINAL

After all requested changes are made and final payment is received, Core Distinction Group will submit a final draft of the Hotel Market Feasibility Study and Brand Specific Pro Forma to the community for distribution.

*If at this point, Core Distinction Group does not feel there is enough need for lodging to merit the costs of a new build hotel, we will stop the process, communicate with the community and offer alternative options for accommodations. If this happens, the contracted entity is not responsible for the remaining study costs highlighted in (Cost) and will receive a report indicating the reasoning behind the decision.
