

New Water Meters being installed

News Release Date

10-03-2022

New water meters are being installed the week of October 3rd beginning on Elm Street and working east to Cherry Street. There may be a short disruption in service as the meter is installed at the home. Thank you for your patience as we upgrade the system.